

Extremely Sad': Ravichandran Ashwin Slams BCCI for Snubbing Iyer and Jaiswal in Asia Cup Squad

The announcement of India's Asia Cup 2025 squad has sparked heated debates, and the loudest voice of dissent has come from none other than senior off-spinner Ravichandran Ashwin. The veteran cricketer expressed his disappointment over the omission of Shreyas Iyer and Yashasvi Jaiswal, calling the decision "extremely sad" and questioning the selection committee's approach.

Ashwin's Reaction

Ashwin, known for his outspoken views, did not hold back. According to him, both Iyer and Jaiswal have been consistent performers and deserved a place in the squad. He stressed that ignoring such in-form players sends the wrong message, especially when the team is preparing for a high-pressure tournament like the Asia Cup. Ashwin added that the duo had proven themselves in both domestic and international circuits, making their exclusion difficult to justify.

Iyer and Jaiswal's Case

- Shreyas Iyer: A reliable middle-order batsman, Iyer has played some crucial knocks for India in recent times. His ability to anchor the innings and accelerate when required makes him a valuable asset in limited-overs cricket.
- Yashasvi Jaiswal: The young opener has been one of the brightest prospects in Indian cricket. With his fearless approach and knack for scoring big runs, Jaiswal has often been seen as a future mainstay in the top order.

Both players have been in fine form leading up to the tournament, making their exclusion even more surprising for fans and experts alike.

Impact on Team Balance

The snubbing of Iyer and Jaiswal has raised questions about India's batting depth in the Asia Cup. With tough opponents waiting, many feel the absence of these two could affect the team's flexibility and stability in crunch situations. Ashwin's remarks have only amplified the ongoing debate, placing additional pressure on the management to defend its choices.

Final Word

While India's squad still looks strong on paper, the omission of Shreyas Iyer and Yashasvi Jaiswal has left a section of fans and former players dissatisfied. Ashwin's strong reaction highlights the importance of fair selection and recognition of consistent performers. As the Asia Cup approaches, only time will tell if India's gamble pays off or if the absence of these two names will be felt deeply.
