

CPL 2025: Top Highest Run-Scorers and Batting Leaders

The Caribbean Premier League (CPL) 2025 has once again lived up to its reputation as one of the most entertaining T20 tournaments in the world. Known for explosive batting, packed stadiums, and a carnival atmosphere, the league has seen some exceptional performances this season. Let's take a look at the top run-scorers and batting leaders who have made the biggest impact so far.

Consistency at the Top

Every CPL season produces standout batters who dominate the charts with both flair and consistency. In 2025, players have combined power-hitting with smart cricket, adapting to conditions across the Caribbean. Openers, in particular, have led the way, setting the tone for their franchises with aggressive starts in the powerplay.

Star Performers

- Nicholas Pooran continues to be a fan favorite, dazzling crowds with his ability to clear the ropes with ease. His strike rate and fearless batting have kept bowlers under pressure throughout the tournament.
- Shimron Hetmyer has shown his maturity this season, balancing aggression with calculated shot selection to anchor his team's innings when needed.
- Among international stars, the likes of Faf du Plessis and David Miller have provided invaluable experience, often guiding their sides through tricky run chases.

Impact of Emerging Players

CPL 2025 has also seen young Caribbean talent rise to the occasion. Batters like Shai Hope and Brandon King have shown remarkable consistency, proving that the future of West Indies cricket remains in safe hands. Their ability to rotate strike and find boundaries under pressure has been one of the highlights of this season.
