Both teams are eager to secure a crucial win in the group stage, and fans can expect a high-intensity contest. Let's take a look at toss predictions, key performers, and possible outcomes.

Toss Prediction

In recent games, pitches have favored batting early on, with some assistance for spinners as the match progresses. Captains may prefer to bat first, put runs on the board, and then let bowlers defend with scoreboard pressure. India, with their strong top order, could benefit more from batting first, while Sri Lanka may prefer chasing to play to their strengths.

Top Run Scorers to Watch

For India, Smriti Mandhana and Harmanpreet Kaur remain the most reliable batters. Mandhana's consistency at the top and Kaur's ability to anchor innings while accelerating later make them key threats. For Sri Lanka, skipper Chamari Athapaththu will be vital. Known for her aggressive stroke play, she can shift the momentum quickly.

If India bowls first, Renuka Singh could also make a big impact by providing early breakthroughs.
