

BCCI New President and Treasurer 2025: All You Need to Know

The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI), the world's richest and most powerful cricket board, has once again made headlines with its 2025 elections. With a new President and Treasurer taking charge, fans and stakeholders are eager to know what lies ahead for Indian cricket under this fresh leadership.

A New Era of Leadership

The newly elected BCCI President steps into the role at a crucial time, as India is preparing for the 2025 Asia Cup, Champions Trophy 2025, and the ICC T20 World Cup 2026. The President's responsibilities go far beyond the glamour of the position—he plays a pivotal role in shaping India's domestic structure, international tours, and financial strategies. His focus will likely include strengthening India's bench strength, promoting women's cricket, and ensuring smooth coordination with the ICC.

On the financial front, the BCCI Treasurer holds one of the most critical roles in cricket administration. With the board's revenue running into thousands of crores, the Treasurer ensures transparent accounting, manages funds from broadcasting rights, sponsorships, and oversees allocations for infrastructure development. The Treasurer's management of the IPL finances will also be crucial, given its massive global following.
