

Pakistan vs Sri Lanka Asia Cup 2025 Super Four, Match 15: Prediction and Preview

The Asia Cup 2025 Super Four stage continues to heat up, and Match 15 between Pakistan and Sri Lanka promises to be a high-stakes encounter. Both teams have a storied rivalry in the tournament's history, with Sri Lanka's tactical discipline often clashing against Pakistan's unpredictable brilliance. This match could prove decisive in shaping the path to the final.

Pakistan's Approach

Pakistan enters this contest with a balanced side featuring a fiery pace attack and dependable middle-order batsmen. Babar Azam's form remains central to their batting, while Fakhar Zaman's explosive starts could make a significant difference. With Shaheen

Afridi and Naseem Shah spearheading the bowling unit, Pakistan will aim to choke Sri Lanka's top order and dictate terms.

Sri Lanka's Strengths

Sri Lanka, on the other hand, thrives in the Asia Cup environment. With a mix of experienced campaigners like Kusal Mendis and young talents adding depth, their batting lineup has shown resilience under pressure. The spin duo, led by Wanindu Hasaranga, could be their trump card against Pakistan, especially if the pitch offers turn under the lights.
