

A Look at India's Complete Dominance Over Pakistan in the ODI World Cup (Men & Women)

Few rivalries in world cricket evoke as much passion and intensity as India vs Pakistan. From packed stadiums to record-breaking TV viewership, the clash between the two cricketing giants is nothing short of a global spectacle. However, when it comes to the ODI World Cup, one team has reigned supreme – India. Across both the men's and women's editions of the tournament, India has maintained an unbeaten streak against Pakistan, showcasing composure, skill, and consistency under pressure.

India's Unbeaten Streak in Men's ODI World Cups

The story of India's dominance began in 1992, when the two sides first met in a World Cup. Since then, India has never lost to Pakistan in any ODI World Cup encounter. From Sachin Tendulkar's masterclass in 2003 to Rohit Sharma's explosive century in 2019, India has always found heroes who rise to the occasion. The streak now stands at 8-0, a record that has become a symbol of India's mental toughness in big tournaments.

Women's Team Following the Same Path

The Indian women's team has mirrored this success on the global stage. In the Women's ODI World Cup, India too has maintained a perfect record against Pakistan. From Mithali Raj's calm leadership to Smriti Mandhana's elegant batting, India Women have dominated every clash, often winning comfortably. The latest meeting in the 2025 Women's World Cup continued the same story – India outclassed Pakistan in all departments, reaffirming their superiority in the rivalry.
