

ICC Women's World Cup 2025: IND-W vs SA-W Match Prediction – Toss, Most Runs, Most Wickets & Player of the Match

The ICC Women's World Cup 2025 continues to deliver exciting clashes, and one of the most awaited group-stage fixtures features India Women (IND-W) facing South Africa Women (SA-W). Both teams have been in fine form, making this match a crucial one in the race for the semifinals. With India boasting strong batting depth and South Africa known for their pace attack, fans can expect a thrilling encounter.

Toss Prediction

In recent games at this venue, chasing has proven to be slightly easier under lights. Both captains will likely prefer to bowl first after winning the toss, looking to exploit early swing conditions. However, with India's strength in chasing totals, Harmanpreet Kaur may have a slight advantage if she wins the toss and opts to field.

Most Runs Prediction

India's batting lineup looks strong with Smriti Mandhana and Shafali Verma at the top. Mandhana's consistency in big tournaments makes her the top contender for most runs in this match. On the South African side, Laura Wolvaardt remains their most dependable batter, capable of anchoring the innings and accelerating when needed. Expect one of these two openers to dominate with the bat.

Most Wickets Prediction

India's bowling has been spearheaded by Renuka Singh Thakur, whose ability to swing the ball early could trouble South Africa's top order. On the other hand, Marizanne Kapp and Ayabonga Khaka form a potent duo for South Africa, especially with the new ball. Among them, Kapp's experience and all-round ability make her a strong candidate to pick the most wickets.

Player of the Match Prediction

Given her all-round impact, Harmanpreet Kaur could emerge as the Player of the Match, especially if she contributes both with bat and in captaincy decisions. However, if South Africa stages an upset, expect Marizanne Kapp to be at the heart of it.

Final Verdict

Both sides are evenly matched, but India Women hold a slight edge due to their in-form batters and home conditions. Expect a competitive contest with India likely to seal the win – powered by another stellar performance from Smriti Mandhana and Renuka Singh.
