

IND vs PAK Women's World Cup 2025: India Thrashes Pakistan To Win Their Second Match In The Tournament

The IND vs PAK Women's World Cup 2025 clash lived up to the hype, delivering a dominant performance from Team India as they cruised past arch-rivals Pakistan to register their second win of the tournament. In front of a packed stadium filled with passionate fans, the Indian women displayed class, composure, and confidence to seal a memorable victory that keeps their campaign on track for the semifinals.

India's Commanding Performance

After winning the toss, India opted to bat first—and that decision proved golden. Smriti Mandhana and Shafali Verma gave the team a flying start, setting the tone with crisp boundaries and fearless intent. Mandhana's elegant stroke play and Shafali's aggression left the Pakistani bowlers struggling to find rhythm. The middle order, led by Harmanpreet Kaur and Jemimah Rodrigues, capitalized perfectly, taking India to a massive total that proved out of Pakistan's reach.

Pakistan's Struggles Continue

In response, Pakistan faltered under pressure. Early breakthroughs from Renuka Singh and Pooja Vastrakar broke the backbone of their batting lineup. Despite a brief fightback from captain Bismah Maroof, Pakistan failed to sustain momentum and were bowled out well short of the target. India's fielding and energy throughout the innings reflected their intent to dominate every aspect of the game.

Check Out:- India W vs Pakistan W match in the 2025

Star Performers Shine

Smriti Mandhana was named Player of the Match for her superb half-century, while Renuka Singh's disciplined spell with the new ball earned widespread praise. The team's unity and tactical brilliance under Harmanpreet's leadership were evident as every player contributed to the win.

India's Road Ahead

With two back-to-back victories, India now sits comfortably near the top of the points table. The team looks balanced, confident, and ready to take on the tougher challenges ahead. Their next match will be crucial in maintaining momentum and strengthening their bid for the knockout stages.

Conclusion

The India vs Pakistan Women's World Cup 2025 encounter once again showcased the fierce rivalry and immense talent on both sides. However, it was India's all-round excellence that stood out, as they outclassed Pakistan in every department. With this win, Team India not only reaffirmed their championship credentials but also gave their fans a performance to remember.

Related Article: IND Vs PAK Womens World Cup Result