

IND vs AUS: Suryakumar Yadav Smashes 150 T20I Sixes, Trails Only Rohit Sharma – Top 5 Six-Hitters in T20Is

In the high-octane India vs Australia T20I clash, Suryakumar Yadav etched his name deeper into cricketing history by becoming only the second Indian – and one of the very few globally – to hit 150 sixes in T20 internationals. Known for his fearless batting and 360-degree stroke play, Suryakumar continues to redefine the art of power-hitting in the shortest format of the game.

The stylish right-hander reached the milestone with yet another trademark flick over deep square leg, a shot that has become synonymous with his aggressive intent. Since making his T20I debut, Suryakumar has revolutionized India's middle-order batting, combining innovation with pure timing. His ability to find gaps and clear the ropes effortlessly makes him one of the most dangerous batters in world cricket today.

With 150 sixes to his name, Suryakumar now trails only Indian skipper Rohit Sharma, who leads the charts as the all-time highest six-hitter in T20Is. Rohit's consistency and longevity have helped him amass over 190 sixes, making him a benchmark for power-hitting excellence.
