

Create History!” – Indian Men’s Team Sends Best Wishes to Women’s Team Ahead of ICC Women’s World Cup Final

As the anticipation for the ICC Women’s World Cup Final reaches fever pitch, the entire nation stands behind the Indian Women’s Cricket Team – and leading the chorus of support are none other than the stars of the Indian Men’s team. From Virat Kohli to Rohit Sharma, players across formats took to social media and team platforms to wish the women’s side all the best as they aim to etch their names in cricketing history.

The phrase “Create History!” has become a rallying cry for millions of fans, reflecting the spirit and determination of a team that has inspired a generation. The women in blue have displayed remarkable consistency and composure throughout the tournament, overcoming strong opponents like Australia and England to book their place in the final. Their performances have not only captured hearts but also redefined the standards of excellence in women's cricket.

Check Out: Shreyas Iyer Parents

Captain Harmanpreet Kaur and her squad have showcased an ideal blend of experience and youthful energy. The likes of Smriti Mandhana, Shafali Verma, and Deepti Sharma have stepped up in crucial moments, turning potential challenges into triumphs. As they gear up for the grand finale, the men's team's heartfelt wishes add an extra layer of motivation.

Rohit Sharma's message, encouraging the women to "go all the way and bring the cup home," echoed the sentiments of millions of Indian fans. Virat Kohli, too, praised their resilience and called the team "an inspiration to every young cricketer in the country."

With the final just hours away, the nation is united in its support. The Indian Women's Team stands on the verge of creating a golden chapter in cricket history – and no matter the result, their journey has already made the country proud.

Related Article: Indian Men Wish Womens World Cup 2025