

Royal Challengers Bengaluru WPL 2026 Auction: Detailed Look at the Full Squad After the Auction

The Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) WPL 2026 Auction delivered excitement, strategy, and major squad upgrades as the franchise focused on building a balanced and competitive unit for the upcoming Women's Premier League season. With a clear vision of strengthening their core, RCB made impactful bids, targeted key all-rounders, and added emerging talents to shape a squad capable of challenging for the WPL 2026 title. Here's a detailed look at the full squad and how the team stands after the auction.

Focused Strategy at the Auction Table

RCB approached the WPL 2026 Auction with the goal of improving depth in both batting and bowling departments. The management prioritized experienced international stars while also investing in young Indian prospects who can deliver long-term value. Their strategy revolved around strengthening the middle order, boosting the pace attack, and adding multi-dimensional all-rounders.

RCB WPL 2026 Full Squad Overview

Key Retained Players

- Smriti Mandhana (C): The backbone of RCB's batting and a consistent top-order performer.
- Ellyse Perry: A world-class all-rounder who brings leadership, balance, and experience.
- Richa Ghosh: The explosive wicketkeeper-batter known for her match-winning finishing skills.

Also Read:- ICC WTC Final 2027

Top Auction Signings

- Marizanne Kapp: One of the standout picks, adding strength with her sharp pace bowling and dependable batting.
- Deepti Sharma: A massive Indian signing, bringing reliability with the ball and stability in the middle order.
- Tahlia McGrath: A dynamic all-rounder who enhances RCB's top-order strength and bowling variety.

Promising Domestic Additions

- Shreyanka Patil: Retained for her growth and wicket-taking ability with off-spin.
- Disha Kasat: A technically solid batter who offers stability in the middle order.
- Asha Sobhana: Provides valuable leg-spin options and depth in bowling.

Strengths of the New RCB Squad

The revamped squad features a strong mix of experienced internationals and talented Indian players. RCB now boasts:

- A stable top order anchored by Mandhana and McGrath
- A powerful middle order combining Perry, Deepti, and Ghosh
- A balanced bowling attack with Kapp, Shreyanka, and Asha
- Versatility through multiple all-rounders capable of changing the game

Also Read: RCB Full Squad

Final Thoughts

The Royal Challengers Bengaluru WPL 2026 squad looks stronger, deeper, and more balanced than ever before. With impactful auction signings and a well-rounded lineup, RCB enters the new season with renewed confidence and a realistic shot at securing their first-ever WPL title.