

IND vs NZ: [Watch] BOWLED!!

Arshdeep Singh Gets Henry Nicholls in First Over on Comeback in 3rd ODI

Indian pacer Arshdeep Singh made a dream comeback to the ODI side during the 3rd ODI against New Zealand, delivering an instant impact by dismissing Henry Nicholls in the very first over of the match. The left-arm seamer struck early, sending social media into a frenzy and giving India the perfect start in a must-win encounter.

After being benched in the earlier games of the series, Arshdeep's return was closely watched—and he didn't disappoint.

Arshdeep's Dream Start in the Powerplay

Bowling with the new ball, **Arshdeep Singh** looked sharp and confident from his first delivery. On the fourth ball of the opening over, he produced a beautiful inswinging delivery that beat Nicholls' defense and crashed into the stumps.

The New Zealand opener had no answer to the movement and pace, walking back for a low score. The dismissal set the tone for India's bowling effort and lifted the energy levels of the entire team.

Video Goes Viral on Social Media

The wicket was quickly shared across platforms like X (Twitter), Instagram, and YouTube with captions such as:

- “Arshdeep is back with a bang!”
- “What a ball! Absolute peach.”
- “This is why he deserves a spot.”

Fans praised the youngster's composure and ability to deliver under pressure, especially after missing out in the previous matches.

Why This Wicket Was So Important

Henry Nicholls has been one of New Zealand's most reliable batters in ODIs. Removing him early gave India a psychological edge and disrupted the visitors' plans at the top.

Early breakthroughs are crucial in ODI cricket, and Arshdeep's wicket helped India control the powerplay phase while keeping the scoring rate in check.

Also Read: IND vs NZ Series Updates, Match Prediction

Arshdeep Singh's Growing Reputation

Known for his calm mindset and deadly swing, Arshdeep Singh has become one of India's most dependable left-arm pacers. His ability to strike in the powerplay and bowl yorkers at the death makes him a valuable asset in limited-overs cricket.

This comeback performance further strengthened his case for regular selection in the ODI setup.

Fans React: “He Should Never Be Benched”

Indian fans were quick to express their views online. Many questioned his omission from earlier matches and called for consistent opportunities.

Some trending reactions included:

- “Arshdeep deserves a permanent spot.”
- “What a comeback moment!”
- “That ball to Nicholls was pure class.”

Final Thoughts

Arshdeep Singh's first-over wicket of Henry Nicholls in the IND vs NZ 3rd ODI was a perfect comeback statement. It showcased his skill, confidence, and ability to perform on the big stage.