About Your Local Owner

We are a help first business, and we do it because we care.

Michele O'Brien and Rebecca
Phillips

Owner

Michele O'Brien and Rebecca
Phillips are co-owners of Bio-One of Cherokee County. Both Michele and Becca live in Woodstock, Georgia with their husbands. They both have 2 children and even live on the same street! Michele graduated from Florida State and moved back to Georgia with her husband 7 years ago. Becca grew up in the Atlanta area and began a marketing company when she was 22 years old. The team was originally developed when both became realtors in the Metro Atlanta area and realized they have a great synergy for working together and helping their clients. This passion for helping others, along with a strong need to make a difference in their community, has inspired them to become part of the Bio-One team.

Compassion & Understanding

Our priority is you. Bio-One, to this day, continues to be the most passionate and caring crime scene cleanup and biohazard decontamination company in the cleaning services industry. We have built our company on the foundation of discretion and confidentiality. We treat each situation with care and compassion, and take time to learn your individual needs and goals. We can open your insurance claim and work with adjusters so you can focus on other urgent matters. We strive to make a difference in our community and thrive by going above and beyond for our clients.
