

IND vs NED: What Happened The Last Time India Played Against Netherlands In T20 World Cup?

The India vs Netherlands rivalry may not be one of the most high-profile contests in world cricket, but their previous encounter in the T20 World Cup created plenty of buzz. The last time the IND vs NED clash took place in a T20 World Cup was during the ICC T20 World Cup 2022, and it turned out to be a dominant performance by India.

Here's a detailed look at what happened in that memorable fixture.

When and Where Did It Happen?

The match between the India national cricket team and the Netherlands national cricket team was played at the iconic Sydney Cricket Ground in Australia. It was a crucial Super 12 encounter, with India aiming to build momentum after their opening win of the tournament.

India's Batting Dominance

Batting first, India posted an imposing total of 179/2 in 20 overs. The innings was built on solid half-centuries from skipper Rohit Sharma, who scored a fluent 53, and star batter Virat Kohli, who remained unbeaten on 62.

However, it was Suryakumar Yadav who stole the show with a breathtaking 51* off just 25 balls. His innovative stroke play and aggressive finish powered India to a commanding total in the IND vs NED contest.

Clinical Bowling Performance

Defending 179, India's bowlers executed their plans perfectly. The Netherlands struggled to keep up with the required run rate and eventually managed only 123/9 in 20 overs.

Pacer Bhuvneshwar Kumar struck early blows, while young left-arm seamer Arshdeep Singh maintained tight lines. The disciplined bowling effort ensured India secured a comprehensive 56-run victory.

Check Out: SL Vs ZIM Match Prediction

Key Takeaways From The Last IND vs NED Match

1. Top-order consistency: India's experienced batters delivered under pressure.
2. Explosive finishing: Suryakumar Yadav's cameo shifted the momentum decisively.
3. Bowling discipline: The Indian attack never allowed the Netherlands to settle.

The win significantly boosted India's net run rate and strengthened their campaign in the tournament.

Final Thoughts

The last IND vs NED clash in a T20 World Cup showcased India's depth, balance, and tactical superiority. While the Netherlands showed fighting spirit, India's experience proved too strong on the day.

As fans look ahead to the next India vs Netherlands encounter, memories of the 2022 contest highlight how dominant India have been in this matchup. Whether history repeats itself or produces a new storyline, the IND vs NED fixture continues to attract attention in every T20 World Cup edition.