

List Of Captains Who Won ICC T20 World Cup (Men's)

The International Cricket Council (ICC) Men's T20 World Cup is one of the most prestigious tournaments in international cricket. Since its inception in 2007, several iconic captains have led their teams to glory, showcasing exceptional leadership, strategy, and composure under pressure. In this blog, we take a look at the complete list of captains who have won the ICC Men's T20 World Cup.

Complete List of ICC T20 World Cup Winning Captains

2007 – MS Dhoni (India)

The inaugural T20 World Cup in South Africa saw MS Dhoni lead a young Indian side to victory. India defeated Pakistan in a thrilling final, marking the beginning of Dhoni's legendary captaincy era.

2009 – Younis Khan (Pakistan)

Pakistan bounced back strongly in 2009, with Younis Khan guiding his team to a dominant win over Sri Lanka in the final held in England.

2010 – Paul Collingwood (England)

England secured their first ICC trophy under Paul Collingwood's leadership, defeating Australia in the final with a clinical all-round performance.

2012 – Daren Sammy (West Indies)

Daren Sammy led West Indies to their maiden T20 World Cup title in Sri Lanka, beating the hosts in the final with a memorable display of power hitting.

Also Read:- Why did KKR release Mustafizur Rahman?

2014 – Lasith Malinga (Sri Lanka)

Sri Lanka finally lifted the trophy in 2014 under Lasith Malinga's captaincy, defeating India in the final and ending years of near misses in ICC tournaments.

2016 – Daren Sammy (West Indies)

Daren Sammy became the first captain to win the T20 World Cup twice, leading West Indies to victory against England in a dramatic final remembered for Carlos Brathwaite's heroics.

2021 – Aaron Finch (Australia)

Australia claimed their maiden T20 World Cup title in 2021 under Aaron Finch, defeating New Zealand with a dominant batting performance in the final.

2022 – Jos Buttler (England)

Jos Buttler led England to their second T20 World Cup title in 2022, overcoming Pakistan in the final with a strong all-round display.

2024 – Rohit Sharma (India)

India returned to T20 World Cup glory in 2024 under Rohit Sharma's leadership, showcasing consistency and dominance throughout the tournament.

Key Highlights and Records

- Daren Sammy is the only captain to win the ICC T20 World Cup twice.
- India and West Indies are among the most successful teams in T20 World Cup history.
- Captains who succeeded often combined tactical brilliance with calm leadership under pressure.

Conclusion

The ICC Men's T20 World Cup has produced some of the finest leaders in cricket history. From MS Dhoni's calmness to Daren Sammy's inspirational captaincy, each winner has left a lasting legacy.

As future tournaments unfold, new leaders will emerge, aiming to etch their names into this prestigious list of T20 World Cup-winning captains.