

SRH vs RR: “I Try To Dominate Bowlers..” After Knocking Out Cummins’ SRH, Vaibhav Sooryavanshi Opens Up On His Mindset

The IPL 2026 clash between Sunrisers Hyderabad (SRH) and Rajasthan Royals (RR) produced another thrilling chapter in the tournament, with Vaibhav Sooryavanshi emerging as the standout performer. The young batting sensation played a fearless knock that helped Rajasthan Royals eliminate Pat Cummins-led SRH from the competition. Following the memorable victory, Vaibhav opened up about the aggressive mindset that has shaped his success this season.

His statement, “I try to dominate bowlers,” perfectly summed up the intent and confidence that defined his innings and has made him one of IPL 2026’s brightest stars.

Vaibhav Sooryavanshi Leads RR to Crucial Victory

The SRH vs RR encounter carried massive playoff implications, with both teams battling to keep their title hopes alive. However, Rajasthan Royals found their hero in Vaibhav Sooryavanshi.

Facing a quality bowling attack led by Pat Cummins, Vaibhav showed remarkable composure and attacking intent from the very beginning. He played with freedom, taking calculated risks and putting pressure back on the bowlers.

His explosive stroke play disrupted SRH's plans and shifted momentum in RR's favor. Whether against pace or spin, Vaibhav looked in complete control, finding boundaries consistently and refusing to let the opposition settle.

The innings proved decisive as Rajasthan Royals secured an important win and knocked Sunrisers Hyderabad out of the tournament.

“I Try To Dominate Bowlers” – Vaibhav Explains His Approach

After the match, Vaibhav Sooryavanshi spoke about the mindset that drives his batting.

The youngster revealed that his focus is not merely on surviving at the crease but on taking control of the contest.

“I try to dominate bowlers,” Vaibhav said, highlighting the attacking mentality that has become his trademark in IPL 2026.

His words reflect a modern T20 batting philosophy where aggression and intent often dictate outcomes. Instead of allowing bowlers to build pressure, Vaibhav believes in forcing them onto the defensive.

This approach has worked brilliantly for him throughout the season and has earned praise from fans and cricket experts alike.

Pat Cummins and SRH entered the contest hoping to extend their campaign, but Vaibhav's brilliance proved too difficult to contain.

Cummins attempted multiple bowling changes and tactical adjustments, yet RR's young batter remained unfazed. His ability to attack without losing shape highlighted his maturity despite his young age.

For SRH, the defeat marked a disappointing end to their IPL 2026 journey. Despite flashes of brilliance during the season, they struggled to stop Rajasthan's momentum when it mattered most.

A Star in the Making
