

What Is India's Highest Team Score In ODI Cricket? Check Top 5 Totals By India In ODIs

India's ODI cricket history is filled with memorable performances, record-breaking innings, and incredible batting displays. Over the years, the Indian cricket team has produced some of the biggest totals in One Day International cricket, thanks to world-class batters and fearless batting approaches.

Fans often search for India's highest team score in ODI cricket and the biggest ODI totals achieved by the Men in Blue. From explosive opening partnerships to dominating middle-order performances, these matches have created unforgettable moments in cricket history.

Let's take a look at India's highest ODI team scores and the top 5 biggest totals recorded by India in ODIs.

India's Highest Team Score In ODI Cricket

India's highest team score in ODI cricket is 418/5, which came against West Indies in 2011. The match was played in Indore, where India delivered a spectacular batting performance.

Opening batter Virender Sehwag played a historic innings, scoring a breathtaking 219 runs, becoming the first Indian to score a double century in ODI cricket at that time. His aggressive batting helped India post a massive total that remains one of the greatest ODI performances by the team.

Top 5 Highest ODI Totals By India

1. India – 418/5 vs West Indies (2011)

India's record ODI total of 418/5 was powered by Sehwag's unforgettable double century. His innings included powerful hitting and complete dominance over the West Indies bowling attack.

2. India – 414/7 vs Sri Lanka (2009)

India registered another huge ODI score against Sri Lanka in Rajkot. The match witnessed an incredible batting battle, with India crossing the 400-run mark. Sachin Tendulkar, Virender Sehwag, and other top-order batters played important roles in building the massive total.

Also Read: - Fans Hail Shubman Gill On Twitter Following Terrific Century In 2nd ODI

3. India – 413/5 vs Bermuda (2007)

During the 2007 ODI World Cup, India scored 413/5 against Bermuda. The match became memorable because of India's dominant batting display. Several Indian batters contributed as the team posted a commanding score.

4. India – 404/5 vs Sri Lanka (2014)

India continued its strong ODI batting record by scoring 404/5 against Sri Lanka in 2014. Opener Rohit Sharma created history by smashing a record-breaking double century, guiding India to another 400-plus total.

5. India – 392/4 vs Sri Lanka (2017)

In another high-scoring ODI against Sri Lanka, India reached 392/4. The match featured brilliant batting performances, showcasing India's strength in limited-overs cricket.

Why India Has Produced Massive ODI Scores

India's success in creating huge ODI totals comes from its strong batting lineup. Players like Sachin Tendulkar, Virender Sehwag, Rohit Sharma, and Virat Kohli have played major roles in transforming India into one of the most dangerous batting teams in world cricket.

Modern ODI cricket has also encouraged aggressive batting, better fitness, and improved strike rates, allowing India to regularly challenge 350-plus and 400-plus totals.

Conclusion

India's highest team score in ODI cricket, 418/5 against West Indies, remains a proud moment for Indian cricket fans. With legendary batters and a powerful batting culture, India continues to create history in One Day International cricket.

These top ODI totals represent India's evolution as a dominant force in world cricket and highlight some of the greatest batting performances ever witnessed.